

ALISON BERRY

(414)514-1052 | alislberry@gmail.com
alisonberryarts.com

PROFILE

- Experienced art teacher and working artist.
- Created art curriculum focused on student-centered learning.
- Committed to arts integration and contemporary art-making practices that fosters curiosity, and independent thinking.

SKILLS

- Painting and drawing
- Printmaking
- Ceramics
- Fiber art
- Jewelry and metalsmithing
- Photoshop
- Art history
- Online teaching

COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT

- Innovative Educators Institute at Lynden Sculpture Garden | 2020
- ArtsECO Fellow 2020-2021
- Volunteer, Artists Working in Education | Dec. 2020
- Volunteer, Food Right-Youth Chef's Academy | Feb.-May 2019

EXPERIENCE

STUDENT TEACHER | LA ESCUELA FRATNEY

November 2020 - January 2021

- Designed and implemented art curriculum for grades K4-5th, with a multicultural and social justice focus.
- Enhanced student learning, using technology to support learning.

STUDENT TEACHER | GOLDA MEIR HIGH SCHOOL

August 2020 - October 2020

- Developed and taught curriculum to optimize skill building, promote discussion, and encourage creativity.
- Used community arts organizations to identify and invite local artists to present projects and provide students with feedback.

DISCOVERY WORLD INTERN

Khol's Design it! Lab | June 2020-August 2020

- Developed arts-integrated curriculum and learning exercises for camp programming.
- Adapted existing curriculum to ensure success on an on-line platform.

BENCH JEWELER | ARTIST ASSISTANT

Ann Marie Cianciolo Designs | 2012-March 2020

- Used casting, soldering, bezel setting, and precious metals to meet designer's specification.
- Engaged customers and sold jewelry at fine art and craft shows.
- Repaired and managed supply inventory.

EDUCATION

ART EDUCATION CERTIFICATE

UW-Milwaukee | 2018-2020 | GPA 4.0

Granted ArtsECO Fellowship 2020

BACHELOR OF FINE ARTS WITH HONORS

UW-Milwaukee | 2005-2009 | GPA 3.6

Major: Fibers | Minor: Art History

Awarded Elsa Ulbricht Memorial Scholarship